Many unmarked graves in this cemetery.

Almost in the center of this cemetery south near the bayou until 1930 stood a handmade brick vault (built erect instead of horizontal) in which, it is said, was buried a gentleman of German descent. He built the vault himself before his death.
It deteriorated somewhat from the elements but was hastened by the curious and vandalism. Weird stories were told about it-creating almost a legend. It has now completely disappeared.

Louisiana and-
The "German Coast" is represented by a number of those buried here.

(Thieves have removed the most (beautiful and artistic iron (fence gates and much of the (beautiful iron lace work.

This is an ideal location for a last resting place. High but gently sloping terrain to the lazy waters of the bayou on three sides.
Venerable spreading oaks lending shade to the verdant grass so green-suggests to the onlooker, "come, thou weary one and rest". So, Mr. Henry EHLERS must have known when he thoughtfully set it aside for his family and later deeded it to the first organized church congregation in the village.

It is not a "care-all," but a remedy for one class of diseases, all of which pertain to the Woman.

Any sufferer from the diseases mentioned can take this remedy, and thus relieve herself without revealing her condition to any one, and without subjecting her womanly modesty to the shock of an examination by a physician.

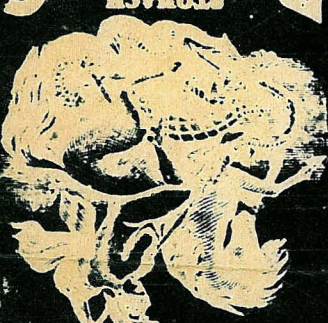

To bring health and happiness to the homes of suffering women is a mission before which angel favor sinks into insignificance. What earthly benediction can compare with one which protects from "That dire disease whose ruthless power Withers beauty's transient flower."

Which gives calm for pain, joy for sorrow, smiles for tears, the ease of health for the pangs of disease, the light, elastic step for dragging weariness, the life of soft repose for heavy hours of toiling, the sweet line of full grown beauty for the sharp and withered form of emaciation, a long life of mental, physical, social and domestic enjoyment for a few sad days of pain and gloom, ending in an early grave? Such is the mission, such are the results of Dr. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR, which is hence truly and appropriately named "Woman's Best Friend."

Whites, and all those irregularities of the womb so destructive to the health, happiness and beauty of women disappear like magic before a single bottle of the "Female Regulator."

All who suffer from any of these diseases are most earnestly invited to give this great remedy a trial. It has cured thousands, and will cure you. Don't fail to try it.

Price, small size, 75 cents. Large size, $1.50. Manufactured by J. BRADFIELD, Atlanta, Ga. For sale everywhere.

Pascagoula, with a voting population of 183,000, has but 6,500 foreign voters. Georgia, among its 225,000 voters, has but 6,000 foreigners, and Mississippi, out of 240,000 voters, has but 5,600 of foreign birth. The developments of the past few months, however, show a prospect of a change in this regard. Instead of the entire body of immigrants making a "bee-line" for the West and Northwest, as has hitherto been the case, quite a respectable minority are tending southward.

The people of the Southern States have suddenly awakened to the fact that the North and West are reaping a golden harvest of willing, patient labor in this tide of foreign wealth-producers who come to this country annually, and are making efforts to gain their proportion of it. Texas, Missouri and South Carolina have especially gained ground in this regard. These three States have received during the past six months nearly ten thousand immigrants from those landing in New York along, while from Philadelphia and Baltimore numbers have gone southward, and others have gone direct to the ports of those States and then been distributed in the interior. The Texas transportation companies have, of late, been making very low rates to San Antonio and other parts of the State, and the result has been that they have gone thither in numbers. The South Carolina Board of immigration has also met with some success in its efforts to turn the tide in part that way.

Of course the proportion of the immigrants who go South is as yet small, but the number is increasing. Of the 277,000 who have landed in New York during the past six months Illinois has received a larger number than any State save New York. The last mentioned State has been accredited with a large proportion of the number landing there, because of the fact that they usually remain in that State for a short while after arriving, preparing for their trip West. New York then leads the list, Illinois standing second, Pennsylvania third, Wisconsin fourth, Ohio fifth, and Minnesota sixth. Of the 278,000 landing in New York in the past six months, 1,332 were in route for points outside the United States, 1,223 went to Canada, 280 to Manitoba, 24 to Cuba, 20 to the West Indies and 18 to Mexico.

The curious enterprise is being conducted in New Jersey of grinding up worn-out India rubber over shoes to make what is called "stock." This material is supplied in barrels, and is pressed by the manufacturers into new India rubber goods. A thin coating of fresh rubber varnish makes them look quite equal to articles of the best quality, but they are said to have an outrageous lack of durability.

ESCATAWPA — In the presence of family and close friends Rhonda Ann Ehlers and Dr. Charles Pascal Shook III were united in marriage by Elder Gordon Gibson. The Escatawpa Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints was the setting for the afternoon ceremony.

Masses of asparagus and boston fern were used at the altar with arched and tree candelabra accented with baskets of flowers.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William Calvin Ehlers of Escatawpa and Mrs. Charles Pascal Shook II and the late Mr. Shook of Birmingham, Ala.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a candlelight gown of organza over taffeta. The empire bodice and long sleeves were appliqued with Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls. The A-line skirt flowed into a chapel length train.

Small phalanopsis orchids, orange blossoms and baby's breath adorned the upswept hairstyle of the bride, and she carried a cascade arrangement of matching orchids, ivy and baby's breath.

Mrs. Stanley Crawford attended her sister as matron of honor. Her gown was a floor length blue flowered with a matching float of chiffon.

Lee Shook of Birmingham, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Eddie Ehlers, brother of the bride, and Roth Mansfield.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of pink Qiana. The bridegroom's mother chose a white jersey, trimmed in green.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ehlers were hosts at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Serving were Mrs. Freddie Joe O'Brien and Mrs. James Self, sisters of the bride; Miss Kathy Graham, and Miss Jo Linda Mansfield.

For traveling the bride selected a white and red pin striped three-piece ensemble.

Following a three week trip to Trinidad and a cruise to Martinique in the British West Indies, the couple is at home in Fort Myers, Fla.

The after rehearsal dinner was held at LaFont Inn. Hosts were Mrs. Charles Shook II and Lee Shook. The couple chose this time to present gifts to their attendants.

OLD CITIZEN OF ESCATAWPA PASSES TO GREAT BEYOND

Mr. Charles Ehlers, an old and respected resident of Escatawpa, died at his home Sunday night, March 20, at the advanced age of 88 years. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, interment being made in Zion cemetery and the services conducted by the Rev. Wm. Wedig, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Pascagoula.

Mr. Ehlers was born in Germany March 2, 1883. He came to America in 1850 and located in Jackson county; later making his permanent home in Escatawpa. At the outbreak of the Civil War, he with his brothers, enlisted in a company formed in the county. He was twice wounded during the war, once at Missionary Ridge, and again at Marietta, Ga., during Sherman's march to the sea.

He was the father of fifteen children, six of whom, Messrs. Charles, William, Andrew and Joseph Ehlers, and Mesdames Emma Lynd and Louise Cunningham, survive him. He also leaves forty-four grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

The American four-masted schooner Margaret Throop, in command of Capt. Arthur W. Simmons, cleared Monday for Baltimore, Md., with 20,000 cross-ties from the Joyce-Watkins Co., of Moss Point. This large vessel crossed the bar drawing 20 feet. Capt. Simmons was highly pleased with our port facilities.

The American schooner Delta, Capt. C. H. Bruce, arrived Sunday day evening.

Misses Helen Rawlins and Velma Mays enjoyed a delightful week-end visit to New Orleans, where they witnessed the play, "Julius Caesar" at the Tulane theatre.

Mrs. Margaret Kirkwood Thompson, wife of Harry Thompson, died at South Pascagoula Sunday, after a lingering illness of several years duration. She was 75 years of age, and leaves a large number of relatives to mourn her passing.

Miss Whalen of Yazoo City has accepted the position as telegraph operator for the Western Union Telegraph Co. On March 1st the office will be moved from Blumers store to the Postoffice building.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill are rejoicing over the arrival in their home of a baby girl, who was born on Tuesday of this week. Their happiness is shared by the little lady's five brothers who are exceedingly proud over their baby sister.

Friends are offering their sympathy to Mrs. Fred Herrin who returned Saturday from Mobile where she was called by the death of her sister, Mrs. Lyde Thompson, who died at the Providence Infirmary on Friday evening following an attack of illness of several weeks duration.

Lawrence Torres of New Orleans was in Moss Point the early part of the week visiting his grandmother, Mrs. T. Torres, and uncle, Mr. V. A. Torres. This young man, who once lived in Moss Point, is now attending a business college in New Orleans.

Mr. John Hill, Sr., has received the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. T. C. Hawkins, which occurred in Sheboygan, Wis. March 18. Mrs. Hawkins was 74 years of age.

McInnis avenue presents a much better appearance at the point where it enters Main street since the city has widened this portion of the avenue and provided a sidewalk leading to the American theatre. 'Thought It Was The Devil,' But It Was Big Horseshoe Crab In Net

A giant horseshoe crab, almost a total stranger to local waters, was caught Sunday by two Pascagoulans shrimping from a skiff.

The odd catch was brought in by C. G. Eubanks and F. E. Goodman from the channel into the Inner Harbor from the river.

Shaped like a huge helmet, the critter filled the bottom of a washtub. His shell was about a foot in diameter. From front to end of its saw-like tail he measured about two feet.

Eubanks said he's shrimped local waters for years, had never seen such an animal or heard of one being caught. "I thought we'd brought up the devil."

The crab was identified by Mrs. Joe Campbell, before whose home the men docked their skiff.

PHA Allocates 500 House Units For Local Cities

The Federal Housing Authority has allocated 500 housing units for employees of Ingalls shipyard, it was announced in Washington this week.

The units are for erection at Pascagoula and Moss Point.

Three hundred of the units will be temporary and 200 will be permanent.

Joseph Campbell, assistant to W. R. Guest, Ingalls executive vice president, said Thursday that no interpretation of the "temporary" units has been received.

They could be either trailers or demountable houses, he said.

Of the 300 permanent units, 185 will be for sale, 115 will be rented. They will be two- and three-bedroom structures.

Campbell said that no deadline for submission of applications by prospective builders of the units has yet been set by Paul Kemp, state FHA director.

Missing Vessel Object Of Search Sunday, Monday

A shrimp boat owned by Bill Lynn of Moss Point was object of a search Monday when it failed to come back from a trip outside the island Sunday afternoon.

L. D. Alexander, Gerald, 16, and Jimmy, 14, and the two Lynn boys Frank and Ed went out on the boat Sunday about 2 p. m., planning to be back by dark. The boat was captained by Otis McClure.

When the boat failed to come in during the night, L. M. Alexander, Lynn and several others started out to look for the Peggy Jean which in the meantime had run aground off Horn Island.

The Coast Guard joined the search, but met the Peggy Jean on the way in. They reached shore about 5 a. m. Monday, tired and hungry but none the worse for the experience.

Pfc. Charles Lamar Ehlers, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Ehlers of Escatawpa, was wounded in action in Korea Sept. 11, according to an official telegram received by his parents Monday.

He enlisted in the Marine corps in January and Sept. 1 landed in Korea.

The extent of his injuries is not known yet.

Car Demolished Near State Line Tuesday Night

A crash on Highway 90 Tuesday night near the state line overturned one automobile in a ditch and damaged both vehicles involved extensively, according to E. E. Blakeney, deputy sheriff.

Cpl. Ray Jernigan, Biloxi, and his wife and three-month-old baby were traveling east.

A car driven by Richard Orvin Goodrich, Brookley Field, in the opposite direction swerved over the center line in the road and caught Jernigan's car on the left rear fender and door, officers said.

Examined At Hospital

The force of the impact turned Jernigan's car over by the side of the highway. Mrs. Jernigan and the baby were taken to County Hospital for examination and were released as uninjured. Three passengers in Goodrich's car were also unhurt.

Jernigan's car was almost a

"If you, Mr. Citizen of this state, will give this matter the slightest thought you'll realize that it is as much in your interest as ours that we get some kind of check or bridle on Southern Bell, our telephone company, whose service is as essential to the growth of this state, rural and urban, as fresh air is to the healthy growth of its citizens.

"Southern Bell management is no different from the rest of us. If they have too easy access to rate increase, then inefficiency of service will show up next.

“What can be done?
“Our request for rate reduction was turned down flat by Southern Bell representatives. If you make a similar request you'll get the same treatment. The blocking of the rural co-op phone enabling act has killed the kind of competition which might establish a measuring stick for telephone rates. Can the office of the Public Service Commission be revitalized so that it can exercise the checking power it should have?

"If we all realize what is at stake and act in unison, then we can have a phone company that will be a blessing; but if we don't force it to maintain efficiency and the lowest possible rates, then rural Mississippi will have to limp along without phones and our urban friends will have phones that are only half of what they should be.

"Cut this out and send it to your state legislatures and demand of him to cast his vote in favor of the enabling act and also to see to it that the public service commission has the funds needed to take the discriminatory rural raise to court and get it abolished."

Mississippi Southern Bell hiked its rates in September to a level designed to yield an additional $675,000 annually. It was the fifth state rate increase in five years. It was asked for to offset wage increases granted Bell employees, company officials said.

E. S. Gillis, rate expert for the public service commission, told the Chronicle-Advertiser at the time that permission for the increase was obtained by the company under an injunction pending in the Hinds county chancery

The Family News Network

The Family News Network now publishes quarterly newsletters for most American surnames. Most newsletters are like this one, with information particular to that family surname. This is possible thanks to the wonders of modern day technology. Editors of newsletters such as The Ehlers Family News, are now able to plug into the Family News Network database and get genealogical data (deaths, births, marriages, etc), stories and other family events data (military, boat arrivals, census, etc). This factual data combined with information that the readers send in (baby pictures, reunion information, family miscellany, etc) make for interesting, informative reading.

Contact your editor about other surnamed newsletters. Whatever your last name may be, we most likely publish a newsletter for that name.

Six Jillion Ehlers?

by Maxwell MacMaster

This whole thing got started as I was looking at an ad for one of those 9 generation Ancestry Charts. A nine generation chart has 256 great, great, great, great, great grandparents out there - all of which are absolute key players in one's existence. If one of those 128 Great (6) Grandpas didn't go for the twinkle in one of those Great (6) Grandmas' eyes - poof! I wink out of existence.

These 256 individuals were all living here in the U.S. and Europe around 1808 (20 years per generation). Their grandparents had seen independence in 1776. Their grandchildren would live through the Civil War. I only know the name of 2 of my 256 ancestors nine generations ago, yet they were all absolute key players!

It was at this point that I started playing with the computer.

Hmm, in 1492 "when Columbus sailed the ocean blue" there were 33,554,432 Ehlers (well, let's just call them key ancestors.) In 1066, William the Conqueror was "doing in" the British Isles and there were 70,368,744,177,664 Ehlers.

Hmm, something is wrong here. There weren't that many folks on the earth at that time.

Your 47 generation Ancestry Chart probably would have lots and lots of duplicate ancestors. Fred and Alice the Conqueror Ehlers might appear millions of times on the last row of your 47 generation chart as their descendants intermarried.

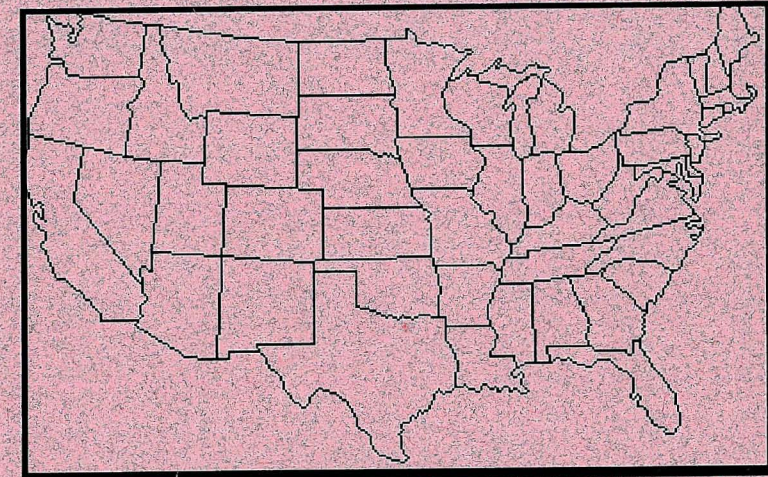

Do you know that: If you lined up all these ancestors head to toe (assuming that they averaged 5 feet in height) that they would make a line 66,637,068,350 miles long!?! Their collective weight (at 135 lbs. per Ehlers) would be 4,398,046,511,104 tons!!!

That is what my computer says.

The Oldest Ehlers in the World ?

Realizing that we most likely will agitate some of our most ancient living readers, we hereby publish what we know about our beloved relatives that have already passed on to greater things. The list is surely incomplete but will be a rush for you readers who may descend from these honorable long living Ehlers.

The records read as follows. Line 1 The number on the left of each record is the individuals rating from 1 (oldest) 2 (2nd oldest), etc . Next comes the name. The 2nd line of each record contains the birth and death dates. Please note that some of our records contain only the month dates of death. We enter these as the 15th of the month (12/15/1992 or 5/15/1987, etc). The third line contains the age to which the party lived and the place he/she was living when he/she died. The latter is recorded as a zip code and usually the state (NY, CO, CA, etc).

Our records are not complete. Early American "frontier" type records are not usually included. Individuals dying after 1990 are not yet in the data base. If you have a family member that has already broken the record, but is still happily kicking about - he/she won't be in the records (because he/she is still kicking about) - write us !!!

Finally, the Ehlers Family News has a visual data base. We have always kept written records (births, deaths, marriages, etc.) but now we have a field in this data base called "visual". In short, we store a picture of each individual in this data base.

We want pictures of these top Ehlers !! We will digitize the picture, store it permanently in our computer, publish it in the paper, and send you back the original (if requested). Mail us pictures today !!!

Ehlers Doughboys

Since only about 100,000 of the more than 27 million veterans are WWI vets, you may need to locate a gravesite. The American Battle Monuments Commission (ABMC) has compiled a list of approximately 124,912 US war dead of World War I and II who are interned in American burial grounds in foreign countries. They also have the names of nearly 100,000 servicemen and women who were missing in action or lost or buried at sea during the World Wars, the Korean War and the Viet Nam War. They may be reached at:

The American Battle Monuments Commissions

Casemir Pulaski Building
20 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20314-0300

For information on veterans and their dependents who are buried in VA cemeteries contact:

Department of Veterans Affairs
National Cemetery System
Washington, DC 20420

While conducting your search, do not neglect your VA Regional Office! The VA is very cooperative in providing assistance in locating veterans. Remember that there are about 100,000 living WWI vets and that the VA may be of great help in putting you in touch with a possible relative.

Many military historical organizations also exist throughout the United States. Although they will not be able to help you locate a particular individual, they will be of great help in providing unit and ship historical data. They may even be able to put you in touch with a unit reunion organization or other groups that could help you locate your WWI ancestor.

Locating a doughboy ancestor may require a lot of time. I have tried to give you a few addresses to help you on your way -- no guarantees that they will bring you results, but it's worth a try. You may want to disregard all of this information and try obtaining the free genealogical information leaflets and forms that address the availability of records pertaining to military service or family histories by writing:

General Reference Branch (NNRG)
National Archives and Records Administration
7th and Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20408

US Coast Guard Muster Rolls from 1914 for vessels, districts, life boat stations, miscellaneous units, and recruiting stations are available from:

National Archives and Records Administration
Washington, DC 20408

Unit/ship rosters will, most likely, contain the names, rank, and service numbers of members. Be prepared to wait several months for these records that may be of poor quality due to age or fire.

Other information on men in the Armed Forces may be obtained by contacting the following:

*Army officers, separated from June 30, 1917 to October 6, 1945 and Army enlisted personnel, separated from October 31, 1912 to October 6, 1945 (including Army Air Corps and Air Force):

Army Branch
Military Personnel Record Center
GSA

9700 Page Boulevard
Saint Louis, Missouri 63132

*Naval officers who served after 1885:

Bureau of Naval Personnel
Department of the Navy
Washington, DC 20314

* Naval enlisted personnel who served after 1885 and Marine officers and enlisted men who served since 1895:

Navy Branch

GSA

9700 Page Boulevard
Saint Louis, Missouri 63132

You may even want to go as far as contacting James T. Controvich, who prepares bibliographies for Army and Air Force units and who has a unit history library of more than 3,000 volumes, at:

One of the greatest sources of military records is the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC). Presently the home of more than 48 million military records, the NPRC contains such records as US Army Morning Reports and Personnel rosters from November 1, 1912 to 1974 and all subsequent reports (including SIDPERS reports) after Morning Reports were discontinued, among others. A word of warning, a devastating fire in July, 1973 destroyed about 80% of the records for Army personnel discharged between November 1, 1912 and January 1, 1960. NPRC may be contacted by individuals, lawyers, investigators, reunion associations, and others by writing:

National Personnel Records Center
9700 Page Boulevard
Saint Louis, Missouri 63132-5100

If you need records as soon as possible from NPRC, the Military Information Enterprises employs a retired member of NPRC who can obtain copies of all records available from NPRC in about two to three weeks. Try contacting:

Military Information Enterprises
Post Office Box 340081
Fort Sam Houston, Texas 78234

Unit and Ship's Rosters are another good source of information and are available from many additional sources. Muster Rolls, including officers and enlisted, from Marine Corps units may be obtained by specifying the exact organization and time period. Late 1700's to 1966 rolls are available on microfilm by writing:

Commandant of the Marine Corps
Code HDH-2
Washington, DC 20380-0001

Finding your Ehlers Doughboy

by Kara Steele

Digging for information on your doughboy relative(s) who served during World War I will require, like most genealogical searches, a lot of patience. Be prepared to spend a vast amount of time filling out forms, writing letters, and sitting by your mailbox. This article will, hopefully, provide you with a few tidbits of information and a couple addresses to get you started.

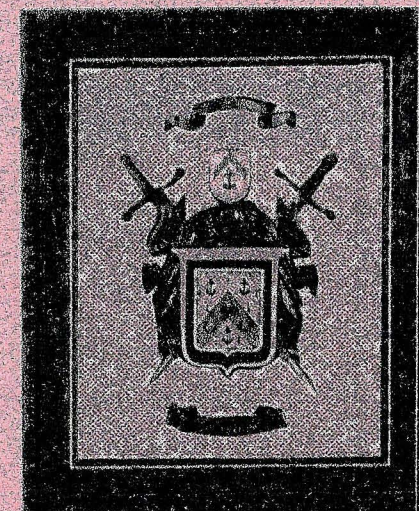

The first question you may ask is, when should I use military records? A good rule of thumb is, if your ancestor lived at a time when he could have served in a war, or if any close relatives of his (or hers) could have served in a war, then you should definitely conduct a search of military records. Don't wait to stumble across information of military experience, go ahead and take initiative -- start searching the records of the appropriate war.

Of course, your search will go much quicker if you have specific information on the branch of the military to which your ancestor belonged and the state from which he served. You will be surprised at where you can obtain some of this early information -- family records, old letters, Bibles, tombstones, obituaries, local histories, church records, and vital records may hold the clues that you need to help you search the military records. A quick tip, if your ancestor enlisted for World War I, he was probably in the same unit as his friends and neighbors who, also, enlisted at the time. Another part of your puzzle could possibly be completed by locating your ancestor's Service Number. These numbers were issued, pretty much at random without significance to geographical area (unlike Social Security numbers), to Army enlisted men starting February 28, 1918 and to Army officers in 1921; Social Security numbers weren't used for military identification until the late 1960's and early 1970's. As far as finding a doughboy, Service Numbers may not be very beneficial, but you never know.

In addition to the above records, many states have collections of records of soldiers who served from them. Check out books that may have been published about the military men and military history of which your ancestor served -- your local LDS Genealogical Society/Library may have records for the states that you're interested in searching. If you know the address at which your WWI ancestor lived at the time he registered, you will be able to gain access to the World War I Selective Service (draft) records. These records can be obtained by writing:
